radius financial group inc. Ranks Among Inc. magazine's Inc. 5000 for Fifth Consecutive Year
radius recognized as nation's 1667th fastest growing company

August 21, 2013, NORWELL, MA – radius financial group inc., a leading mortgage bank in New England, has been ranked by Inc. magazine as one of the nation's fastest growing companies for the fifth consecutive year. Inc. 500/5000, the magazine's annual ranking, is considered the gold standard of entrepreneurial success. Among the companies officially announced yesterday, radius ranked 1667th.

According to Eric Schurenberg, Inc. magazine's editor-in-chief, the Inc. 5000 was harder to get into this year than ever in its 32-year history. "The median company on the list increased sales by more than 140% since the start of 2010, while the average honoree grew a mind-boggling 468%. Those are the results most companies could only dream of in the economy of the past few years."

Sarah Valentini, principal of radius, primarily attributes the company's growth to consistently offering a superior customer experience. "I really believe that's been the key to our continued success, and what's allowed us to ride the ups and downs of the industry's economic cycles," said Ms. Valentini. "It's a true thrill to make the list five years in a row."
